108 Westgrove place is a beautiful 24 unit building on a quiet tree lined cul-de-sac in central Clayton Park. It is on the very border with the Halifax Mainland Common and many of the 1 and 2 bedroom units have balconies with beautiful views onto a ravine, park like setting.

The building is within walking distance to an abundance of amenities off of Lacewood Drive, where you can access grocery stores, pharmacies, banking, numerous restaurants, professional services, and schools.

The Metro Transit routes #17 and #18 are within close proximity will take you directly to down town Halifax.

Each apartment includes: heat, hot water, free parking, and on-site laundry facilities. In addition to these amenities our buildings are fitted with secure intercom systems, and have a live-in superintendent, so tenants feel exceptionally safe and comfortable.
